Plaintiff,	)
	)	STIPULATION AND
vs.	)	PROPOSED ORDER
	)	REGARDING CONDITIONS
MARC CHRISTOPHER BROCKHAUS	)	OF RELEASE
Defendant.	)

With the agreement of counsel for both parties, and with the approval of United States Pretrial Services, and with the consent of defendant Marc Brockhaus, the Court enters this Order documenting an amendment to the CONDITIONS OF RELEASE AND APPEARANCE dated February 2, 2017 and modified on February 16, 2017. The parties agree, and the Court finds and holds as follows:

1. Defendant appeared before this Court on February 2, 2017 for a detention hearing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §§ 3142(e) and 3142(f). At that time, this Court released the defendant on a $100,000.00 unsecured bond, with among other standard conditions, specifically the following added condition:
  - a. That Mr. Brockhaus not have access to any computer or internet accessing related devices.

2. At the time of the detention hearing, the Court indicated it would reconsider the condition denying access to a computer if Pretrial Services could adequately monitor Mr. Brockhaus' access to the internet.

3. At this time, Pretrial Services has indicated an ability to monitor Mr. Brockhaus' internet use with a Windows based computer and payment of a start up fee.

4. Accordingly, and with the consent of all Parties, the Court orders that the defendant's conditions of release and appearance are AMENDED to allow computer use and internet access only under the supervision and monitoring by U.S. Pretrial Services.

IT IS SO STIPULATED.
